As the ceremony commenced, our Honorary Group Chairman, Chairman of the Advisory Committee, and former Member of Parliament, Mr Teo Chong Tee (JP, BBM), took to the podium and delivered an opening speech which was framed around the topic of turning dreams into reality through hard work and determination. “At this point, I am proud to say that our graduates are finished ‘artefacts’ of this excellent academic institution, where remarkable qualities have been deeply instilled in them, apart from the long-lasting knowledge and industry-relevant skills which are required in today’s dynamic and contemporary world of work,” he said.

Graduates were then formally presented with their scrolls and award certificates in the presence of their lecturers, schoolmates, family, and friends following the heartfelt congratulatory speeches delivered by Mr Theo Koukouravas, Deputy Dean of Learning and Teaching (Collaborative and International Programmes, Cardiff Metropolitan University), as well as Professor Damian Ward, Dean of Hertfordshire Business School. READY FOR SOME BALL GAMES? AYE-AYE CAPTAIN!

Growing up, many students are no stranger to the game of Captain's Ball, a simple no-contact sport, given its wide popularity in schools. Playing a light-hearted game of Captain's Ball, not only encompasses a vast array of optimum health benefits, but it promotes friendly cooperation, sporting spirit and camaraderie among students as well. Setting the perfect mood for the upcoming June holidays, the exciting inter-class Captain's Ball competition was held right before the end of the regular school term and primary-level students were selected to represent their classes to participate in it.

During every round of the competition, however, only one player was designated to be the captain of each team. With each game lasting a total of ten minutes, players attempted to score as many goals as possible by passing the ball from one player to the other and eventually passing to their team captains stationed in the end circles. Displays of excellent sportsmanship and solidarity were present throughout the competition and students had hours of fun forging strong bonds of friendship with their schoolmates.

在成长过程中，许多学生对队长球（captain's ball）这项简单的无接触式运动并不陌生，因为它在学生中很受欢迎。参加一场轻松愉快的队长球（captain's ball）比赛，不仅对健康非常有好处，还促进了学生之间的友谊，弘扬了友好合作的运动精神。为即将到来的6月假期营造一个完美的气氛，学院在学期结束前举行了激动人心的队长球（captain's ball）比赛，在每个班级中挑选了学生代表参加比赛。

在每一轮比赛中，每个队伍只有一名队员被指定为队长。每场比赛总计持续10分钟，球员们努力将球从一个球员传给另一个球员，并最终传给驻扎在最后一圈的队长，从而尽可能多地得分。在整场比赛中，学生们展现出了勇于拼搏和团结互助的体育精神，彼此间建立了深厚友谊。

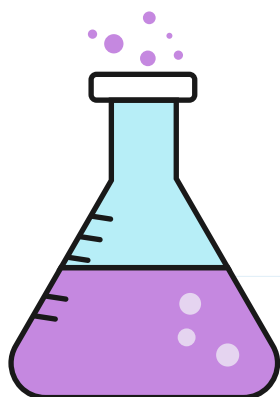

A JOURNEY INTO NEW DISCOVERIES IN SCIENCE

How many planets are there in the solar system? What causes a rainbow? Why does it rain? Such questions, albeit common and simple-sounding, tend to boggle the minds of many inquisitive young learners. With their inherent curiosity and rich imagination, many young learners are unstoppable with questions about science and the best way for them to retain knowledge and facts is through regular hands-on practice by doing projects, experiments and laboratory activities.

To demonstrate the value of project-based learning, upper primary students took part in the recent Science Fair where they discovered so much about their chosen topics ranging from volcanoes to the Solar System. Through this interactive Science Fair, students understood the different ways to look at the world of science as they put together educational displays and models to present to their parents, teachers and fellow schoolmates. Well done, students!

太阳系中有多少颗行星? 什么原因出现彩虹? 为什么会下雨? 这些问题听起来很简单, 但往往会使许多好奇的年轻学习者感到困惑。许多年轻的学习者有与生俱来的好奇心和丰富的想象力, 这使他们对科学的问题无法抵抗, 他们通过日常的实践学习和做实验的方式来获知科学知识和真相。

为了证明项目学习法 (project-based learning) 价值, 我院高年级的小学生们参加了最近举办的科学博览会, 见识了从火山到太阳系的主题, 这些都是同学们非常感兴趣的内容。在这个互动的科学博览会上, 同学们不仅可以学习从多角度看待科学, 同时还学会了利用教育展示与模型结合的方式向他们的父母、老师和同学介绍所学的知识。干得好, 学生们!

DIMENSIONS®

PICK AN OUTFIT WHICH SUITS YOUR FANCY!

As David Bowie famously put it, "We can be heroes — just for one day." Indeed, we can. The Fancy Dress Party, held at DIMENSIONS High School on 31 May 2019, was one time of the year primary-level students actually had the chance to play dress-up and bring their favourite superheroes and Disney characters to life!

Among the dozens of flashy getups and costumes, the more popular ones were none other than the mighty Marvel superheroes, such as Spider-Man, Ironman, Thor, and The Hulk. It was all fun and frolics as students posed for pictures, play-acted as their favourite fictional characters, and waved their pretend weapons at one another. What better way to celebrate the end of the school term than to engage students in a day of unbridled fun!

正如大卫·鲍伊所说：“我们可以成为英雄，哪怕只是一天。”的确，我们可以的。2019年5月31日，博偉（DIMENSIONS）高级中学举行了一年一度的化妆舞会，小学生们可以装扮成他们最喜欢的超级英雄和迪斯尼人物，将这些深受喜欢的虚拟人物带进校园生活中。

在众多华丽的装扮中，最受欢迎的是那些强大而神奇的超级英雄，如蜘蛛侠、钢铁侠、雷神和绿巨人。学生们模仿这些人物的特征，不停摆弄姿势拍照，互相挥舞着仿制的武器嬉戏，一切都充满了乐趣。能够让孩子们尽情享受欢乐，没有什么是比这更好的庆祝学期结束的方式了。
